The yearbook staff extends their thanks to Standard Publishing for use of Richard Hook's painting of Christ.

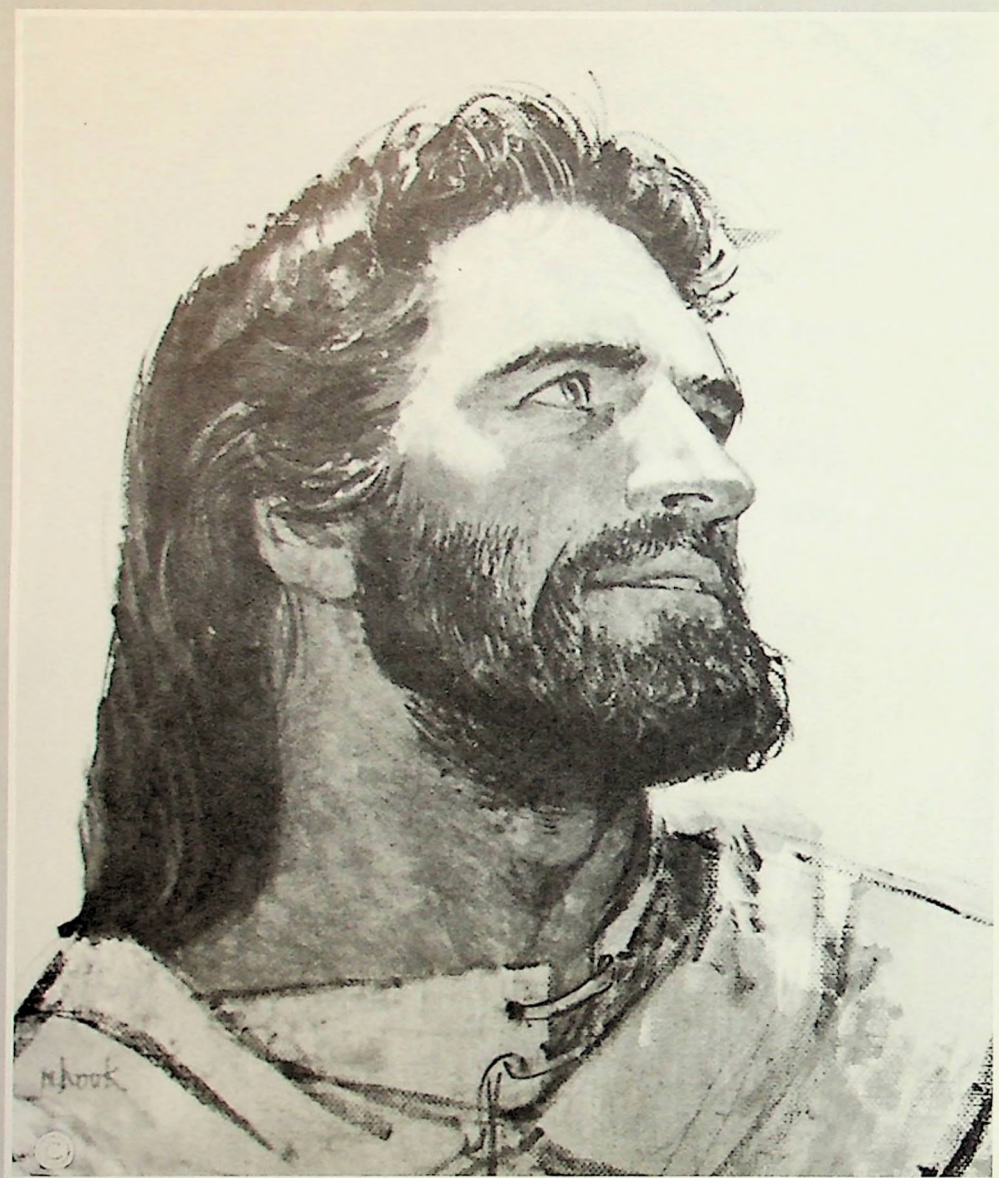

Our Dearest Jesus,

We thank you for the sacrifice you made on the cross for us and for being there so we may "call to you" in our time of need or in our greatest triumph.

You are the reason each of us is here at Manhattan Christian College. Because of what you have done in the lives of the students, faculty, and staff, and because of our desire to focus totally on you, we dedicate this 1992-93 yearbook to you.

In your name we pray,

Amen.

Events

So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God. (1 Corinthians 10:31)

With the help of Jeff Aenk, Michael Cabral sings a song he wrote about people looking for answers. (ice cream social/talent show)

"Come and get it!" Ned bellows as he frantically rings the dinner bell at the all-school retreat. (Notice Nathan plugging his delicate ears.)

"Gross!" is the first thing that comes to mind when Dennis Bloodworth's tongue is seen writhing between R.D. Cogswell's toes at the "talent" show.

While waiting in line for their shot at the ball, everyone gets better acquainted. (all-school retreat)

And The Year Begins . . .

MCC's fall semester started off with a scream, especially when the incoming freshmen witnessed the "tasteful" humor of Dennis Bloodworth and R.D. Cogswell in their talent show skit. Several activities were planned in order to welcome the students to an exciting new year of learning about and calling to Jesus. Prior to the start of classes, an all-school retreat was held at Black Jack Hills to reunite old friends and encourage new friendships. It was a day filled with talking, eating, and playing, as students and faculty participated in a variety of games and sports activities. Later, during the first week of school, the annual ice cream social/talent show was organized on the slab so students could display their God-given abilities and reveal some of their "hidden" talents. All-in-all the activities provided a perfect introduction to the new school year.

Join with others in following my example, brothers, and take note of those who live according to the pattern we gave you. (Philippians 3:17)

Adam Ormord and Rebekah Frost show off their upperclassmen style during the all-school retreat.

MCC students listen intently as their classmates perform at the talent show.

Students take time out at the all-school retreat to focus on their provider. ("Rub-a-dub-dub, thanks for the grub.")

Ned and Rick serve lunch to the hungry crowd so they'll be energized for the rest of the day's activities.

"Don't be afraid of the ball," exclaims his team as Adam Stokes crawls away.

Phil and Tina Alspaw, along with Holly Anderson, have fun in the sun as they enjoy the Skip Day volleyball games.

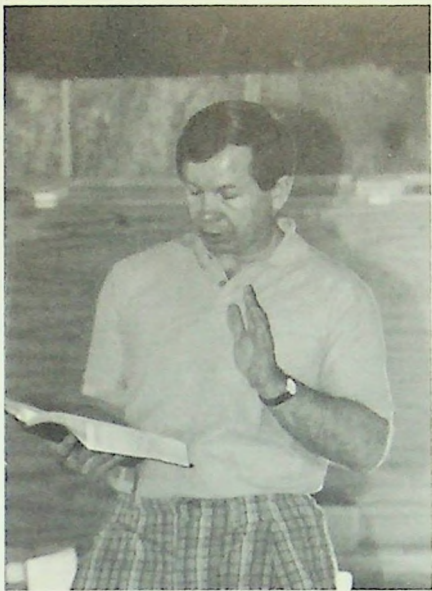

John Poulson is amazed as Wendy Cott describes how big the needle really was.

Chad Goucher explains the art of hanging a volleyball net to a confused Jeremy Eubanks.

Rob Kirkpatrick challenges his listeners to prepare themselves for their upcoming ministries.

Skip Day

Skip Day '93 was yet another successful event put on by S.A.C. The day consisted of a sand volleyball tournament, three-legged races, sack races, eating, sunburns, and many other fun activities. Ned and Rick cooked the dogs and burgers, Rob Kirkpatrick delivered the message, and everyone else just plain enjoyed the events and the afternoon sun. "It doesn't get any better than this!" was the slogan for the day, and by the end of the day, everyone was echoing it.

The ones who pulled everything together to make Skip Day '93 a success. (S.A.C.)

Lorrie Lynam and Ladonna Casey dance with joy as they finally comprehend that they don't have any classes today.

"It isn't anything like Woodstock," is what's on Anita's mind. But Ezell enjoys lying in the afternoon sun.

Students and faculty embark on the "Great Adventure" as they stumble along the sack race path at their own pace.

Table 23 pauses for a picture before taking part in an evening they'll never forget. (Mike, Elizabeth, Cam, Terrie, Travon, Kristin, C.J., Jennifer)

Members of T.S. and their "other halves" pose for a picture that will bring back memories of their college life together. (Laurin and Sheri Hill, Adam and Rebekah Ormord, Derek Shacklett and Holly Anderson)

Aimee Doud smiles with appreciation as she receives her well-deserved Servant's Heart Award from Rick Wright.

The guest artist for the evening, Phil Sandifer, shares stories and songs to make the night more memorable.

Michael Cabral, Eric Eberhard, and Jeff Aenk are the Three Amigos out on the town.

Jeff Allen beams as Matt Janson carries him over the threshold.

SPRING BANQUET

Spring Banquet Awards: President's Award - given to a student who is a leader on campus and is very involved in student activities. (Shawn Condra and Lisa Bahm); Young Crusader Award - given to a student who has an outstanding ministry off campus. (Jon Hanson and Missie Raykiewicz); Servant's Heart Award - given to a student who exhibits a servant's attitude and who often serves in ways that go unnoticed. (Brian Leonard and Aimee Doud)

Ezell Nelson gives little sister Anitra some brotherly love.

Tim and Valerie Dykes smile, knowing they'll never forget their last Spring Banquet.

(right) Shawn, Sasha, Jennifer, and Marlene try to get all the students and faculty to "stay at the Y.M.C.A."

Jason Garren does his best at the limbo, but in this case his best puts him on this backside.

(center, right) As for meeting beautiful Christian women, Dennis Bloodworth gives the skating rink a "thumbs up." (But he's already taken, ladies.)

(right) We all know that Randy Harris could jump over the bar if he wanted to. But the question is, can he get under it?

Skating Party

"All I have to do is think one happy thought ... and then I can fly!" (Tonya Pitts)

Todd Clark has all the ladies falling for him, especially Julie and Malisa.

Rick Wright enjoys a little "peace" during his skating extravaganza. (Ted Fletcher also pictured)

"All right, everyone who wants their picture taken, get on this side of the table." (famous Dr. Caulley statement)

There's nothing better than enjoyin' Mexican food with the folks. (Cam Preuss gets to spend some time with his parents during Parents Weekend.)

Kristie and Genesis dig to see if they got their money's worth at the boxed dinner auction held to benefit the soccer team.

(right) At the beginning of the World Evangelism Conference, the Cassels get together with some dear friends to discuss unreached people groups. Wendall Sack, Bill and Nadine Lown, Rick Grover, and Steve Cook.)

(far right) There's freshmen events, sophomore events, junior and senior events. Yes, there's even events for the married folks, ... who are in a class all their own. (Newlywed/Oldlywed Game)

The roomies try to sneak out of a faculty house before the food which is stuffed in their pockets is detected. (Robynn T., Deb L., Tanya P., and Jami F.)

Scott Wagner smiles with glee as he attempts to eat a small tree at the Thanksgiving Dinner.

Steve Webb hesitates as he tries to decide whether piling his plate high with spicy Thai food is a good idea. (faculty tours; Jeff Allen, also pictured)

"All these pictures can be incriminating," is the thought running through the minds of Trent, Elizabeth, Richard and Chad as they sort through the yearbook sale pics.

Doc Warren leads one of the World Evangelism Conference groups in a discussion on unreached peoples.

While others are socializing, Bobby Graham enjoys the Sandell's Thailand cooking. "Hi, Eric." (faculty tours)

"Our Daily Bread"

Marcy Cassel announces and awards Woman's World scholarships to Elizabeth Glotzbach, Jackie Strohl, and Aimee Doud.

During the bread contest, judge Barb Sanner says, "This loaf wins the Russian Hat Award."

Virginia Beddow laughs with the Woman's World crowd during her class session on learning styles.

Marta Wright shows Leigh Ann Veale how to make May baskets during the craft session at Woman's World.

Woman's World

Marlene Beshara briefly chats with one of the guests at Woman's World.

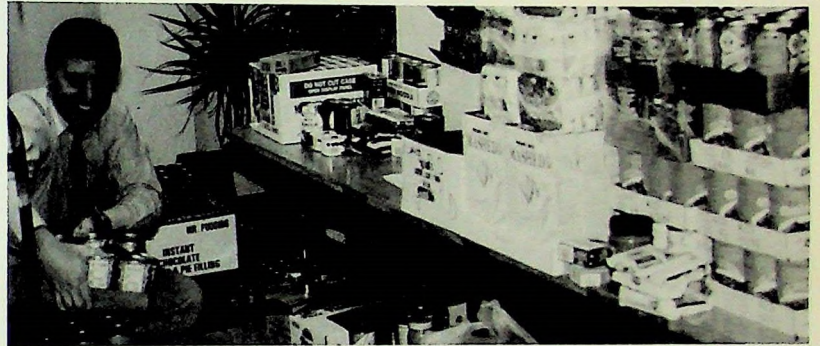

Food Drive/President's Dinner

(top, left) Stuart Johnson and Jason Whyte load an MCC van with all the food collected from students and faculty for the Mayor's Food Drive.

(center, left) Velda Root graciously agrees to serve punch at a reception prior to the President's Appreciation Dinner. (Little did she know it was a ploy to get her there so she could receive her Employee of the Year award.)

Stuart Johnson organizes cans and boxes of food collected at MCC before delivering them to the Manhattan Breadbasket. Over a thousand items of food were collected during the drive.

With a hearty handshake and a big smile, President Cable presents an award to an area church representative. Awards were given to the top 10 churches who supported MCC in '92 through donations or by sending students to attend the college. (President's Appreciation Dinner)

Marcy Cassel expresses her appreciation to President Cable after receiving the Volunteer of the Year award.

(right) President Cable explains how one may become a Scholarshare partner during the banquet at Washington, Ks.

Minister Wendall Sack and Scholarshare coordinator RubyAnn Poulson exchange a few laughs as they discuss the Washington, Ks., Scholarshare weekend.

(center) Dr. Townsend shows the proper position for putting someone in a headlock during his marriage seminar class.

(below) Ad Team members emphasize the importance of a personal commitment to Christ in an evening session with the teens.

The four's and five's watch intently as Tim Dykes teaches them using the flannel board.

Staci Hall and Jami Frey get the two's and three's ready for nap time at the Scholarshare in Junction City.

Scholarshare

Leigh Ann pauses as she reads to hear a 3-year old's personal experience.

Val Dykes captivates the minds of elementary kids as she helps them decode a picture puzzle verse.

Rob Kirkpatrick shows how the New Age movement is using the media to distribute their philosophy into the world. No longer is fundamentalism the norm.

Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.

Proverbs 22:6

James and Heather offer help to the preschoolers as they take a break from the lesson to draw.

Lisa Bahm with the pretty brown curls
Has been dorm mom to a bunch of wonderful girls.
She's a whiz at lists, fits the title "Miss Admissions."
A feminine type, she loves clothes under any conditions.

Sandra Beese has a heart for missions.
She's worked with the Indians, even under adverse conditions.
A minister's wife, she's a mother as well.
Her high grades are well-deserved, as you can tell.

Stephanie Bickel just oozes personality.
She's a spiritual gal who despises rank carnality.
Well-rounded, she likes music, athletics, lots of things.
Her large supply of available clothes happiness to many brings.

Janice Bracken holds a special place of merit.
Graduating with daughter and son-in-law, she's the oldest grad to dare it.
She's concerned for people, hopes to make their lives better.
Jan's a hard-working lady who won't let the devil get 'er.

Angela Burks has proved a pro in her own right, Holding together the registrar's office while others took flight.
Interested in marriage studies and family therapy, She's bound to be a top-notch wife and mother, we agree.

The copy woman herself, Kinko's own Julie Clark,
Took twenty-six hours to graduate--not exactly a lark.
Katie calls her "Judy," and Katie's always Wright.
Julie plans family ministry; that means she and Troy can't fight.

A biker for sure, Les Dubois has changed his name.
He used to be Dubois, but to us he's still the same.
He likes to work with groups, but launches out on his own.
This international type of guy is around the world known.

Our own "Timmy D" from Angel 95
Is fantastic on the air waves; he makes them come alive.
Ministry holds a high priority in Tim Dykes' plans.
He opposes the majority; with the Lord is where he stands.

Val Dykes, too, has talent keen.
She's musical, dramatic, managerial--a Scholarshare queen.
Val hopes to work with family life to improve its quality.
She will need a lot of practice, so look out, Timmy D!

Happy Ted Fletcher is a man with flair.
Some prefer to call him Mr. Ted E. Bear.
A man from Mizzouland, he likes to work with youth, Teaching them to love the Lord and to refrain from things uncouth.

Nontraditional Larry Graber served as Stuco prez.
He's working now with middle schoolers; they'll do what he says.
Even while a school bus driver, he kept his sanity.
That goes to prove that he can be whatever he wants to be.

Rod Halliburton has come a long way
From a rough, tough kid to what he is today.
His quiet, gentle spirit will keep people in accord.
He's gone from building homes to construction for the Lord.

SENIOR SOLILOQUY

by Ruth Ann Warren

Youth minister Jon Hanson, best T.S. dancer in the land--
Some call him "soccer pro," others "girly man."
He wants to plant a church that will grow phenomenally.
With his expertise, he'll make it happen. You will see.

Jodi Haun or "Prissie" or "Nadine" you may know her better as.
Likes to work with junior high and no enormous fetter has.
She loves to sing and gets involved in service groups not foreign;
It's once been said she's the only one who truly understands Dr. Warren.

Kelly Hayes, the catalog shopper, has become quite an organizer.
She works at A.I.M., plans trips for the same; nothing can surprise her.
Her interest in activities kept her busy as a student.
She's not a prude, you will agree, and yet she's very prudent.

Lady rapper Calana Needham Hill should have written this rhyme.
Songwriter of the future--pure, pure, pure is her chime.
This crazy gal can stike up fun; she's always on call.
And on the side she's helping make a mountain out of Paul.

Missions-minded Tari Moats Holtorf, the girl with many faces,
Has organized help for the needy both here and in far-off places.
Her cheery demeanor is contagious, I'm sure.
She gives a boost to those around; she gloom won't endure.

Hinky, or Scott Jenkins, as some accidentally call him,
Is a real team man--basketball and soccer totally enthral him.
His mind is with youth; he likes to think young.
He'll be an accountable accountant, too, won't he have fun!

Brian Leonard is a man of the Lord.
He earned it and he got it--that's the Servant's Heart Award.
Some think he's a flirt, but he's not; that's just his personality showing.
If you'll excuse me, please, I think my nose is suddenly growing.

Paul Martin and Jon--dynamic duo, i.e.--
Were looked on as the prankmasters of MCC.
Paul's earned a degree in foosball as well as in C.E.
He'll be able to balance seriousness and fun in his planned-for ministry.

Ezell Nelson--well, what can we say?
We've enjoyed his Okie accent for many a day.
He's been Stuco prez, Sanderson supervisor too.
He'll be a great youth minister; there's nothing he won't do.

Cute, petite mom, Kelly Pittman, it's true,
Is working on a family and aceing an education,
too.
She's interested in special ed. and little kids.
With her musical talent, her patience and skill, she'll have to turn down bids.

Basketball jock Trent Renner, the senior class prez,
Will make it big in ministry; that's what I see.
His romance bloomed in chapel, where he asked Kelly to be his wife.
She's a runner with the Renner; an alto and tenor, they'll have a harmonious life.

Blond Diane Salsbery has already begun her careering.
Her calm, cool nature helped with her hotline volunteering.
She's working now with troubled youth; she'll get along just fine,
'Cause though she's small, her thoughts are tall, and she has some help divine.

Quiet Annette Setzer, talented in vocal and instrumental,
Has entertained us all at times, and that's not incidental.
She's worked for Ruby Ann for years, a righthand gal, we'd call her.
She panthers Jeff--she's quite a chef, and she hasn't learned how to holler.

Campus minister Mary Swearingin, an athlete through and through,
Has interest in internationals, enjoys discipleship, too.
Her own dry wit has, at times, kept us all in stitches.
We know she'll make it well in life with a minimum of hitches.

Next we have Lynette Thompson, that Nebraska fan,
Who took twenty-six semester hours to graduate with Lisa and Leigh Ann.
Dr. Caulley's organizer, she's a worker sublime.
Her hair gives a clue to why she's a magnet for jokes all the time.

Leigh Ann Veale has a love for pre-school--
And any other age you can name. She is no fool.
This happy, giddy girl likes anything purple she can lay hands on.
She's been a part of everything; there's not much she doesn't make plans on.

Bubbly Pam Warren is a pro at the books
And at setting off fire alarms at times when she cooks.
She got engaged in regal style--in a barn three states away.
Though a farmer's wife is not her life, she's busy making hay.

Steve Webb's an OK Okie, who's no longer in the pokey,
But is setting curves in classes for all the lads and lasses.
He wants to go to prison to proclaim that Christ is risen.
You can help this chief of scholars by supporting him with your dollars.

Paula Ratliff Wilson will have several degrees in all.
We've heard she's given the third one to her husband,
Paul.
You know she was proposed to on the basketball court.
This energetic lady has been quite a sport.

Now we're at the end; as they say, "That's all she wrote."
I'd like to end this session with a paraphrased quote:
Many are called to receive a Ph. D.,
But few are chosen to write a soliloquy.

Kelly Pittman walks down the aisle with a look of anticipation on her face and a thought on her mind "Now, what were those instructions again?"

Graduation

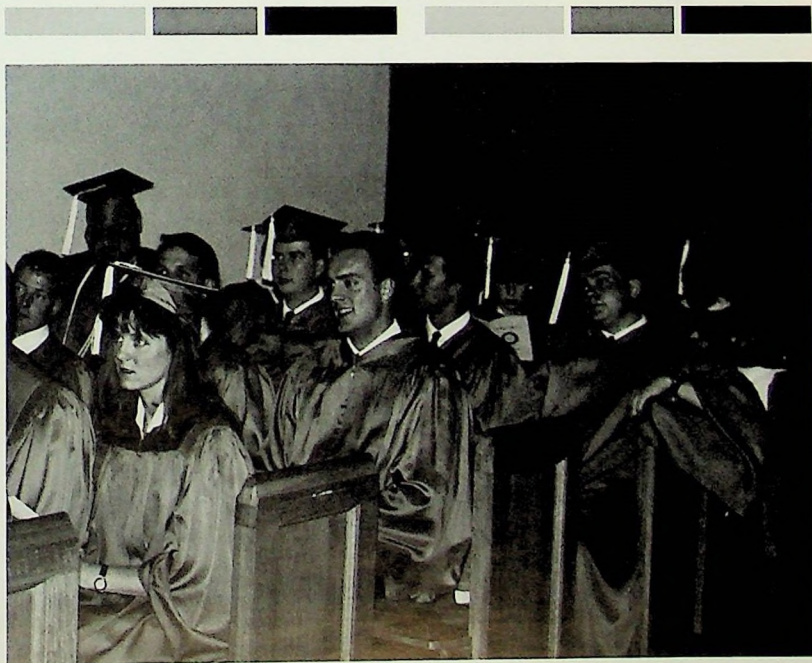

Largest Graduating Class in the History of the School

Award Recipients: Steve Webb, Scholarly Achievement Award; Trent Renner, Church Growth Award; Jodi Haun and Steve Webb, Delta Epsilon Chi Honor Society Award; Pam Warren, National Assoc. of Profs. of C.E. Scholastic Award.

Steve and Jodi cheerfully accept their honor society awards.

Val and her "family of graduates" join together following the graduation ceremony to visit with friends and family

Pam, Steph, and Tari all beam at the thought of graduating. Val, however, seems a little nervous.

Some seem amazed, some seem happy, others seem a little bored as they listen to their final graduation instructions.

Organizations

Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me — put it into practice.
And the God of peace will be with you.

Prison Ministry

Under the supervision of Doug Dorris, director of Christian Prison Ministry of Missouri, a team of MCC students with their "fearless leader," Steve Webb, visited prisoners in Jefferson City Correctional Center. This was the first year MCC participated in a prison ministry.

The team spent one weekend a month in Jefferson City at the prison. They led Bible studies on Saturday and led Sunday morning worship in the chapel. Some Saturday team members visited with prisoners as part of Family Day.

Everyone who participated in the program agreed that while ministering to these men and women, they themselves were blessed.

The prison team: Terry Pritchett, Travon Glover, Alicia Williams, Michael Cabral, Sydel Burtor, Terrie Woodward, (prison guard), Steve Webb, and Ty Gautsch.

MCC Begins Construction On A New Dorm Kenoyer Hall

Clayton and Mike break some of their own ground following the groundbreaking.

The old makes way for the new. (The house on the corner of 16th and Fairchild — former site for the KMCC radio station)

After several years of planning and raising funds, MCC set into motion the construction of a new women's dorm. The need for additional housing had been evident since 1990, when overflow in the dorms brought about the need to house students in other properties on campus.

The dorm will be named Kenoyer Hall in recognition of alumni Ray and Dana Kenoyer, who were major contributors to the project. It will consist of nine suites, each having a living room, four bedrooms, and a large bath. In order to make room for the structure, additional parking, and the landscaping, three of the houses on campus are being moved or razed.

The college will be its own general contractor, with Floyd Sack of Lakewood, Colorado, serving as construction manager. It is scheduled for completion by August 15, 1993.

Congratulations, Jon

We are so proud of you! This is only a stepping stone to what God has ready for you.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, ... "plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11

"I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that he considered me faithful, appointing me to his service." I Timothy 1:12

We love you,
Mom & Dad and your family

MOLE,

You have always been a person who has cared about others. At the time of your birth, God knew you would be graduating from MCC on May 9, 1993.

We love you; we're proud of you!

-YOUR FAMILY

HOUSE OF JEZEBEL

Philippians 4:13

"We can do all things through Christ who gives us strength . . ."

Believe it or not!

God blessed us so abundantly with a wonderful bundle of joy. He made you so special, and we love you so much!!

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR SUCCESS!!

Your faith made it possible - your dream and your aim - to attend/graduate from a Christian college. May you always be an instrument for our Lord and Saviour, and may you always keep Him first in your life.

We are so proud of you!!
Your Family

AN AWESOME THREESOME

A once-in-a-lifetime event,
Quite an unusual incident.
Proud we are you see,
Of our graduates all three.
A daughter, granddaughter,
And grandson-in-law, too,
Has really created a lot of ado.
Working hard for six years,
Deserves a lot of hearty cheers!!!
Through blood, sweat, and prayer,
They are finally there.
On graduation day these three,

Will be filled with glee,
Our buttons will be poppin',
As across the stage they're hoppin'.
A diploma to achieve,
And MCC FINALLY LEAVE!!!!
Congratulations, you three.

Leigh Ann,

When God gave you to us, we knew you were going to be a special blessing - and you always have been.

You have been studying His Word, and now God will be using you to teach His Word.

We love you dearly and pray for your life in your work for the Lord.

Remember . . . when He shuts a door, He always opens a window.

Our Love,
Mom and Dad

TO OUR CHILDREN:

WHEN WE FIRST HELD YOU IN OUR ARMS — SO MANY YEARS AGO ... WE HELD YOU CLOSE AND THOUGHT TO OURSELVES — WE'D NEVER LET YOU GO. BUT AS THE YEARS BEGAN TO PASS AND YOU STOOD ON YOUR OWN FEET ... WE FOUND THAT YOU HAD THINGS TO LEARN AND NEEDS WE COULD NOT MEET. WE FOLLOWED IN YOUR FOOTSTEPS AS YOU WALKED ALONG THE SANDS ... JUST CLOSE ENOUGH, THAT WE'D BE THERE — IF YOU REACHED OUT FOR OUR HANDS. WE TRIED TO TEACH YOU RIGHT FROM WRONG AND INSTILL A LOVE FOR GOD ... SO THAT WHEN YOU GREW — YOU'D LOVE THE LORD, AS YOU TRAVELED THIS EARTH'S SOD. WE'VE WATCHED YOU MAKE YOUR CHOICES, AS BY THE LORD YOU WERE LED ... WE'VE HUGGED YOU CLOSE AND WIPED YOUR TEARS AS TEARS WERE SOMETIMES SHED. YOU'VE ALWAYS BEEN OUR CHILDREN, WE COULD TRUST IN EVERY WAY ... AND NOW YOU STAND BEFORE US — ON YOUR GRADUATION DAY. AS YOU STEP OUT INTO THE WORLD, TRUST IN HIM THRU SUNSHINE AND CLOUD ... AND REMEMBER THAT WE LOVE YOU ... AND WE'VE NEVER BEEN MORE PROUD. WE GAVE YOU TO HIM YEARS AGO, LET HIM LEAD IN WHATEVER YOU DO — AND WE'LL ALWAYS BE HERE IF YOU NEED US — AS YOUR PARENTS, PRAYING FOR YOU.

LOVE TO YOU BOTH,
YOUR PARENTS
